N°	Questions des concurrents	Réponses ONDA
31	we need a little more detail about Rabat so we can be precise about our design In terms of Rabat (new terminal) : - Is there a 3D model of this area of the airport If not, can you please provide - Any details of organic shaped balustrade/glass wall around the mezzanine if no model can be provided. - Ceiling height if model can not be provided. - Elevation of external glass walls and curved glass wall (around stairs and frontage of lounge). - Is access required to ductwork at the back of the lounge? - If our reception needs to be outside of our demise (before the e gates) can we omit the doors either side of our entrance and can we also use the back wall behind reception to create a backdrop with signage?	- A 3D architectural model of the area is available (refer to the attached screenshot); detail modeling is currently underway. - The perimeter partitions of the lounge are 4 meters in height. - As noted during the site visit, the ceiling height varies, with an average of 10 meters. - Access to the ductwork at the back is not necessary; however, air conditioning vents are installed at a height of 4 meters within this ductwork. - A reception area is designated on the plan between the VIP and CIP lounges at the exit of the stairs and elevator. Doors leading to the boarding area and the CIP space are necessary to control access and separate the CIP area from the general circulation area. - The CIP lounge will be included in the overall airport signage. Specific signs at the reception area are permissible, provided the dimensions are reasonable to ensure they do not impede access to the VIP lounge.
32	Y a-t-il un nombre maximal de passagers CIP à traiter pour le service Meet and Assist, en particulier lorsqu'il s'agit de groupes ?	Afin de garantir la fluidité des opérations et d'éviter tout éventuel incident qui pourrait affecter la bonne marche de l'exploitation aéroportuaire, le titulaire est appelé à maintenir une étroite collaboration avec les responsables des aéroports pour la réalisation de ses prestations.
